

BEST WEBSITES TO FIND AN INTERNSHIP

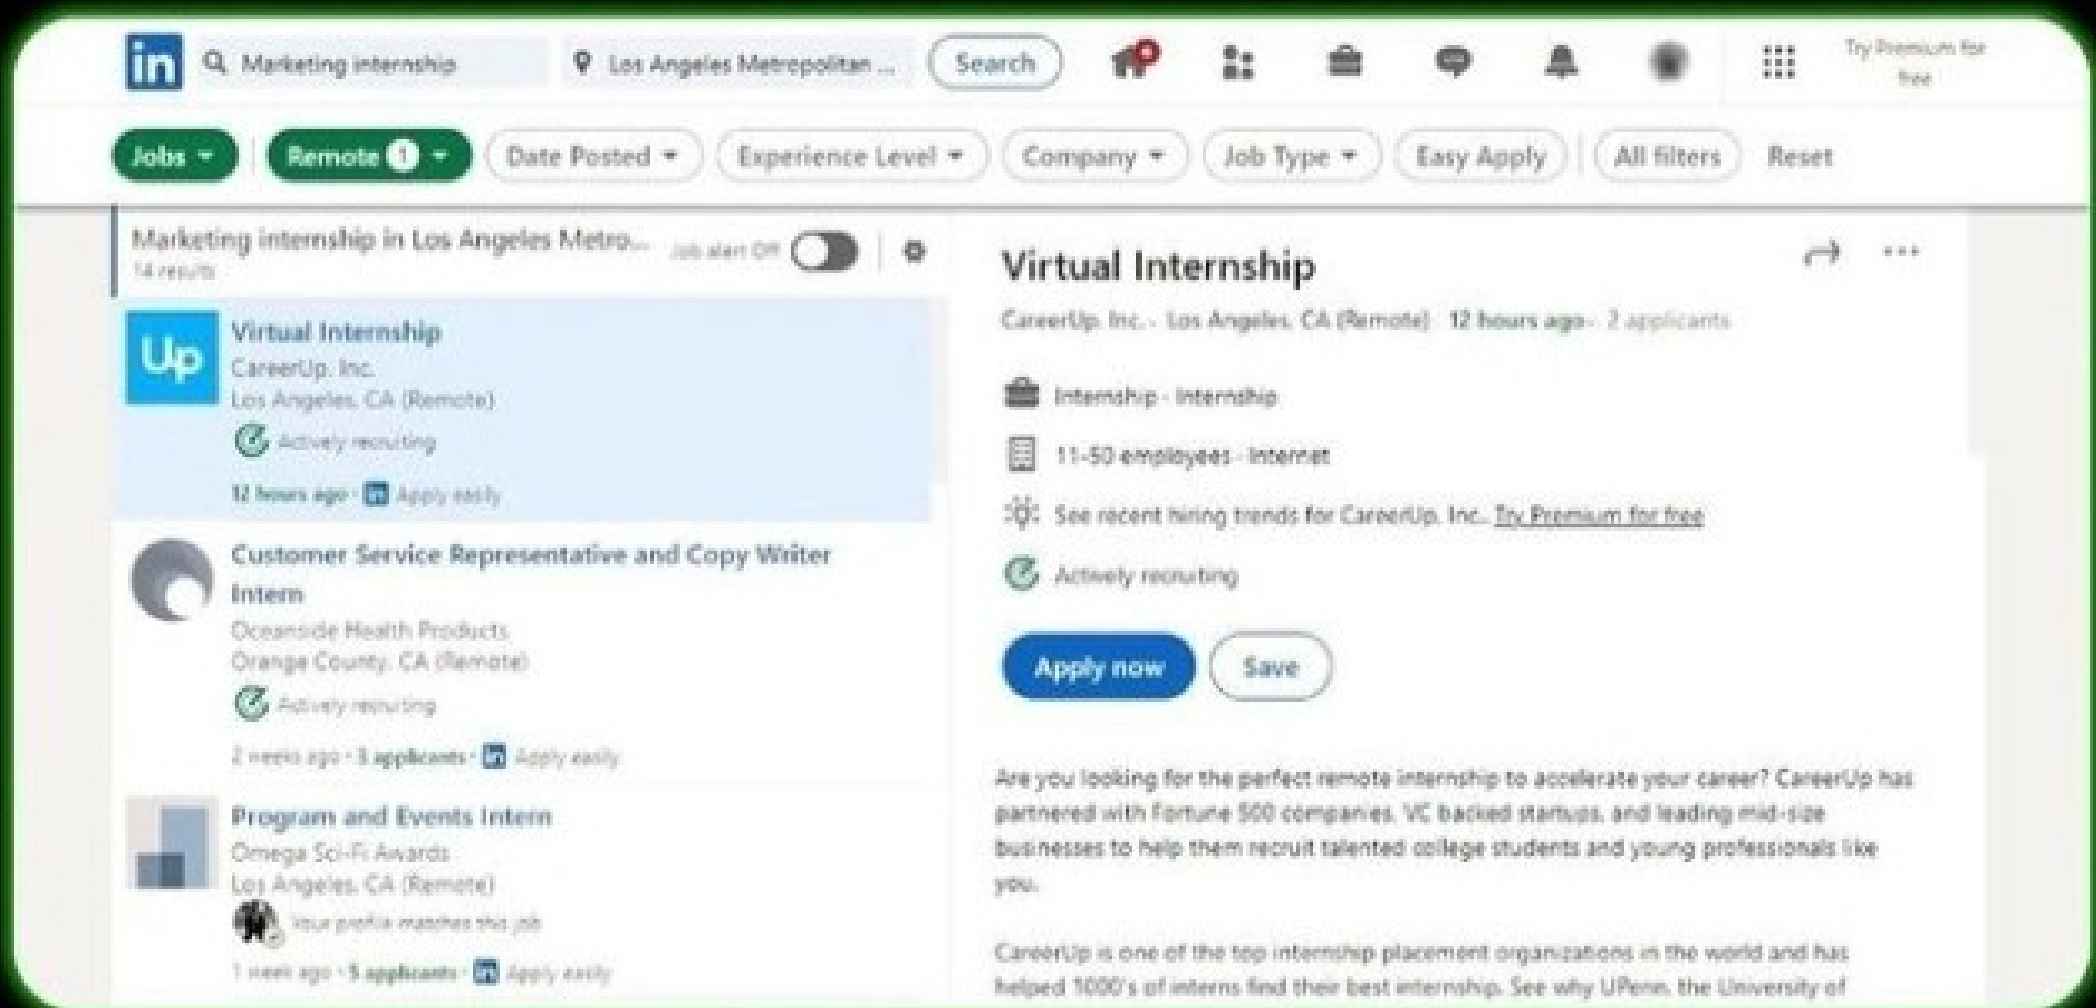

Subrat Shukla

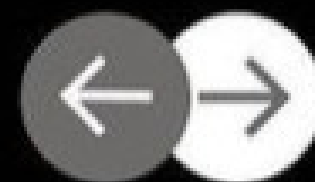

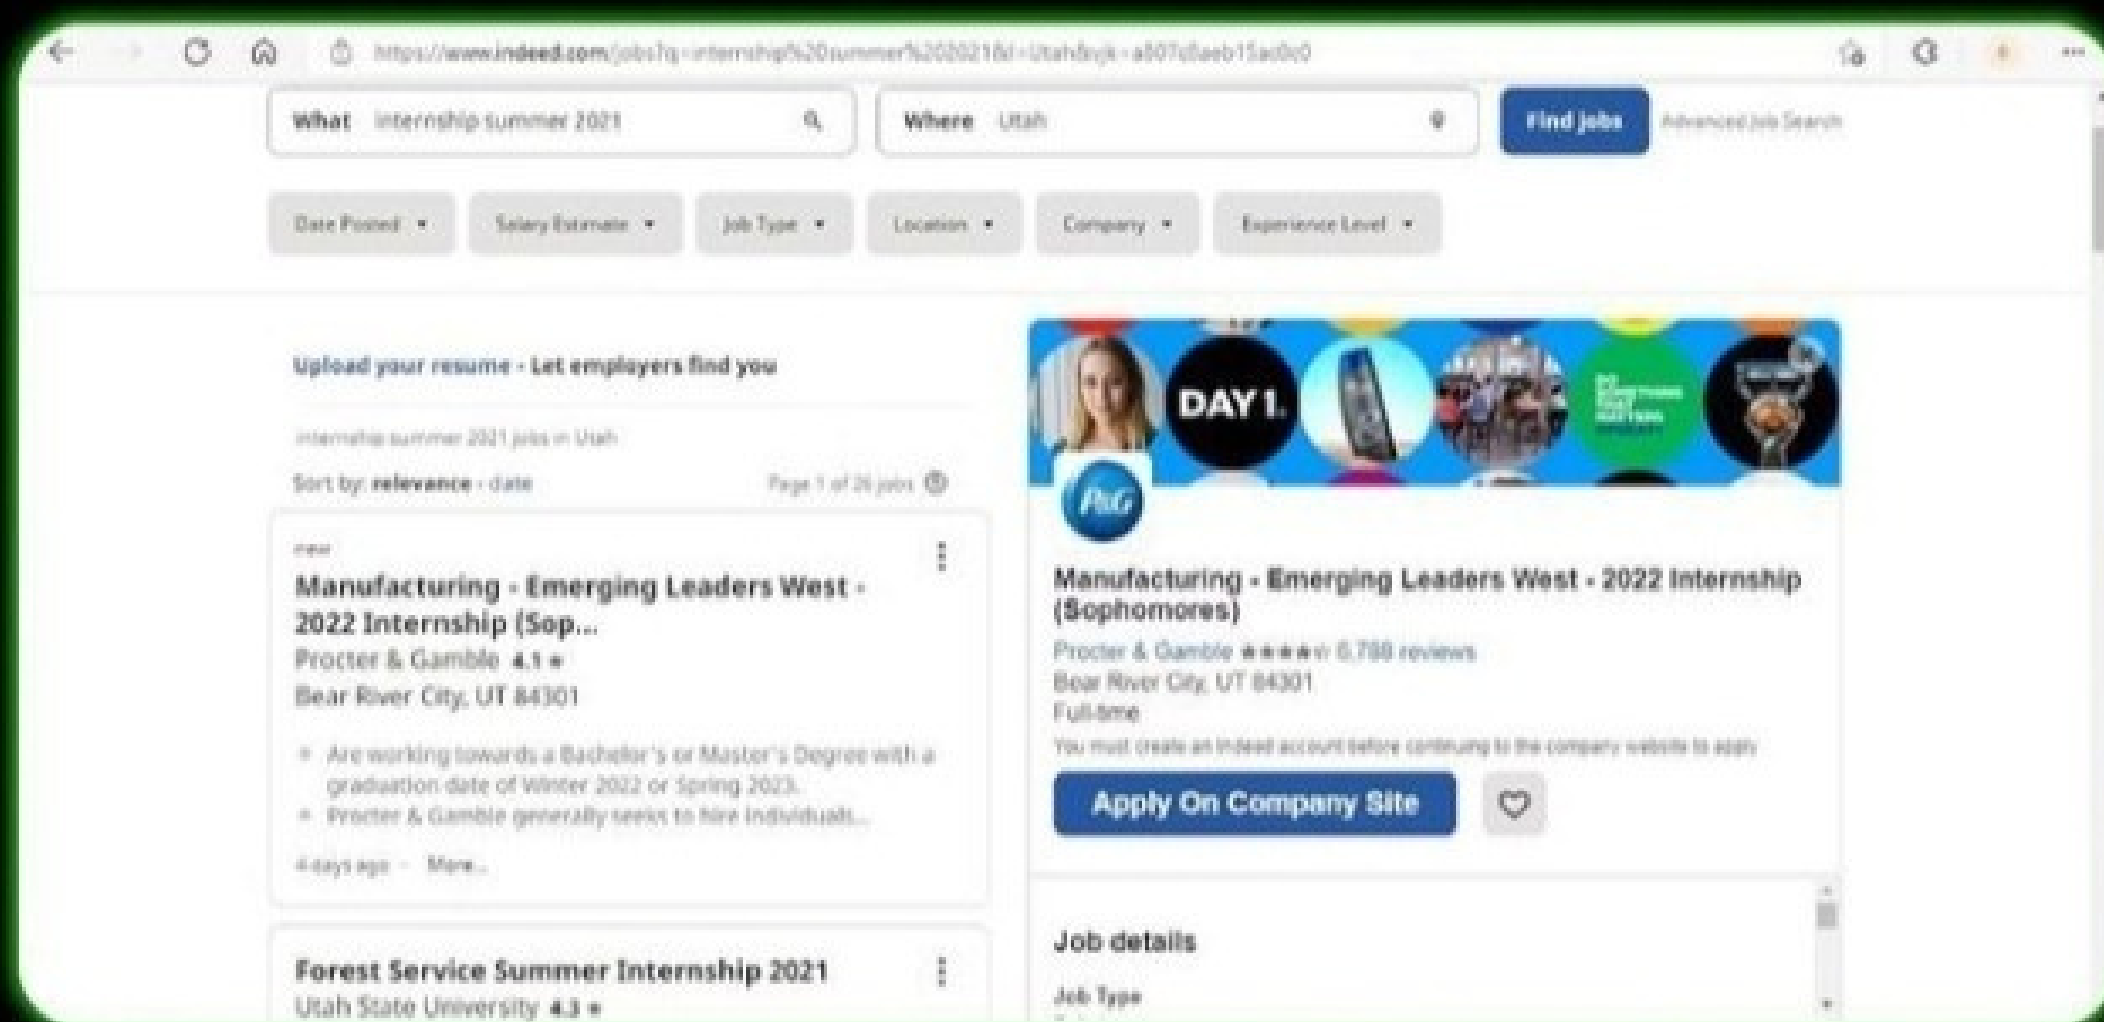

1. LinkedIn

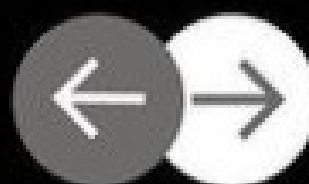

- LinkedIn is one of the most trusted professional networking websites for jobseekers and business people. It has a whole section dedicated to job search.
- LinkedIn has powerful AI-powered features that recommend relevant jobs and internships in your field once you have completed your profile.

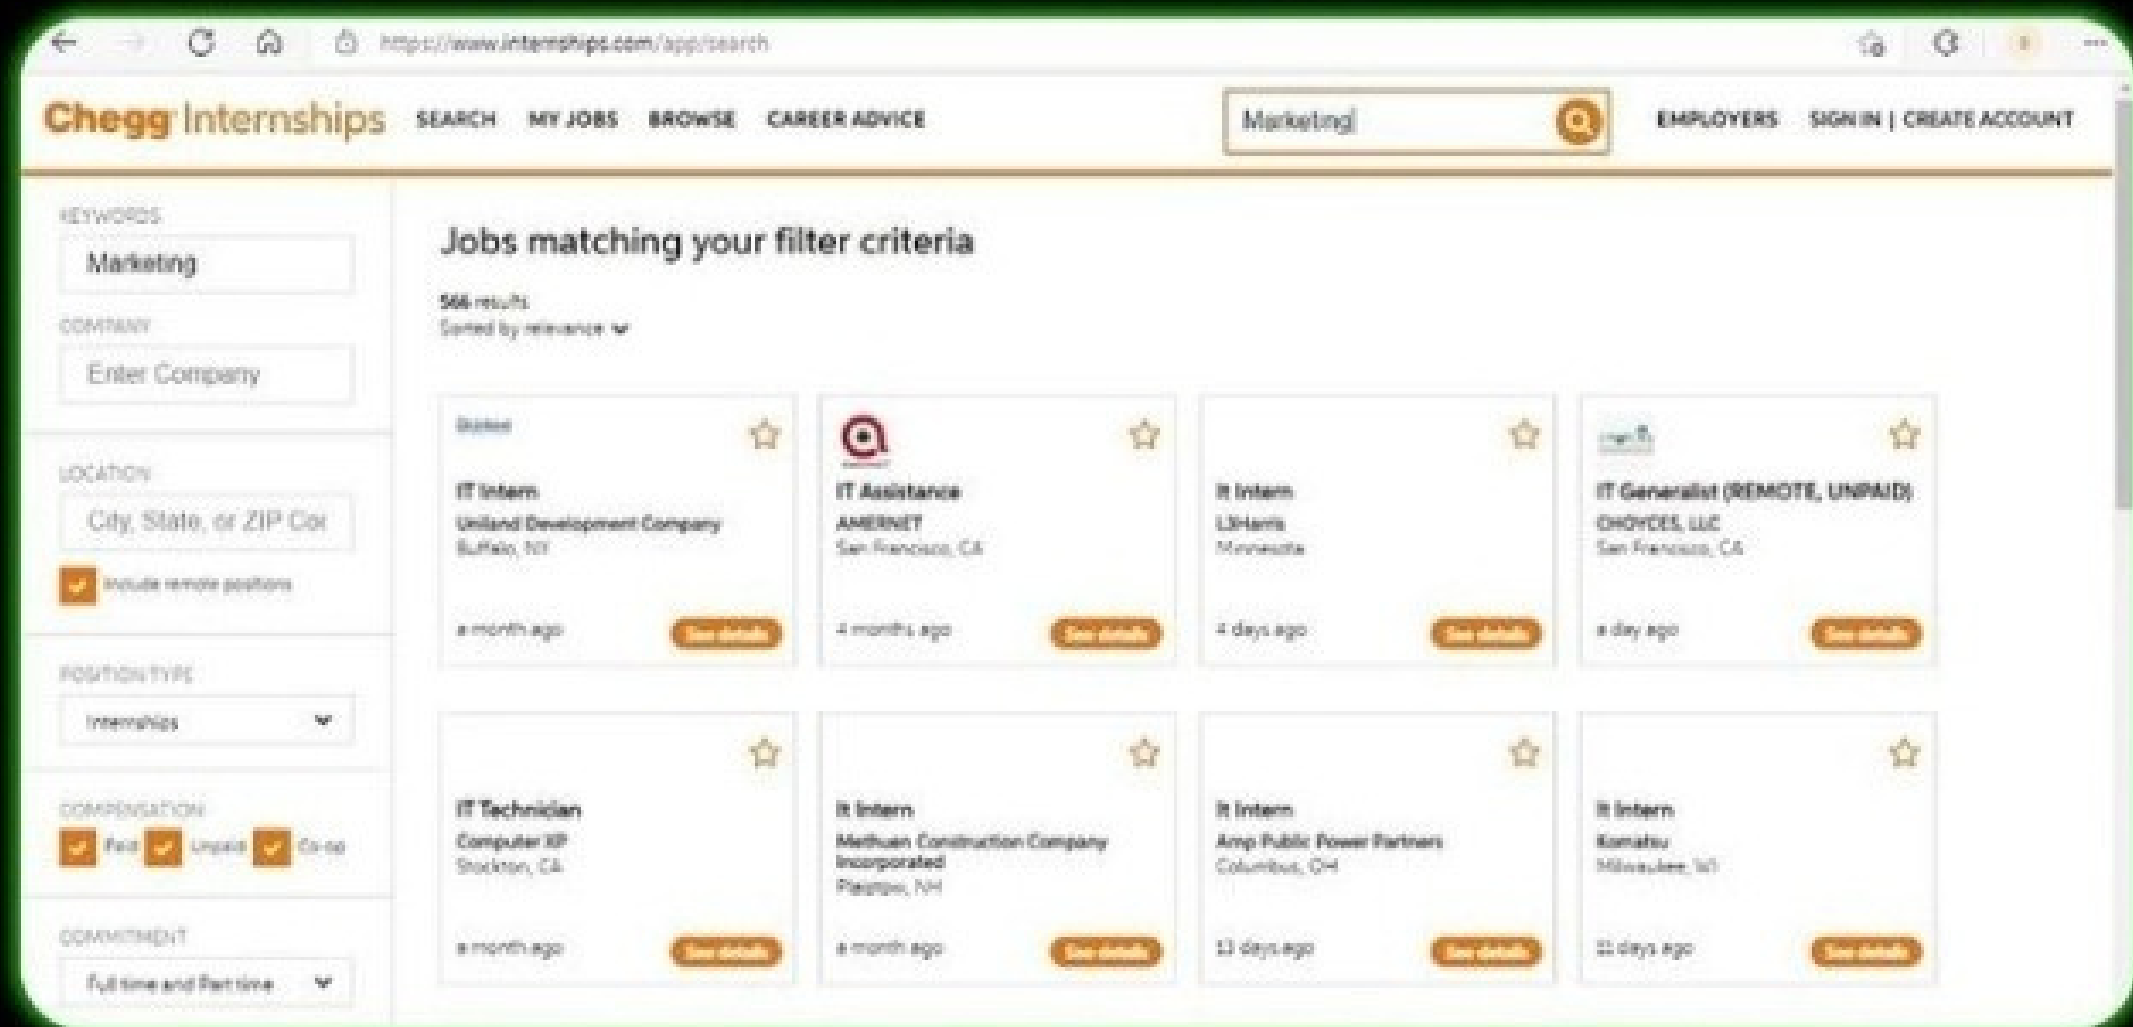

2. Indeed

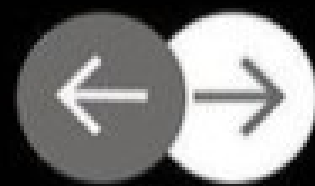

- Indeed is a job search platform that gives you access to millions of different jobs and internships. You can search for full-time, part-time, contract-based, freelancing, and internship positions through this website.

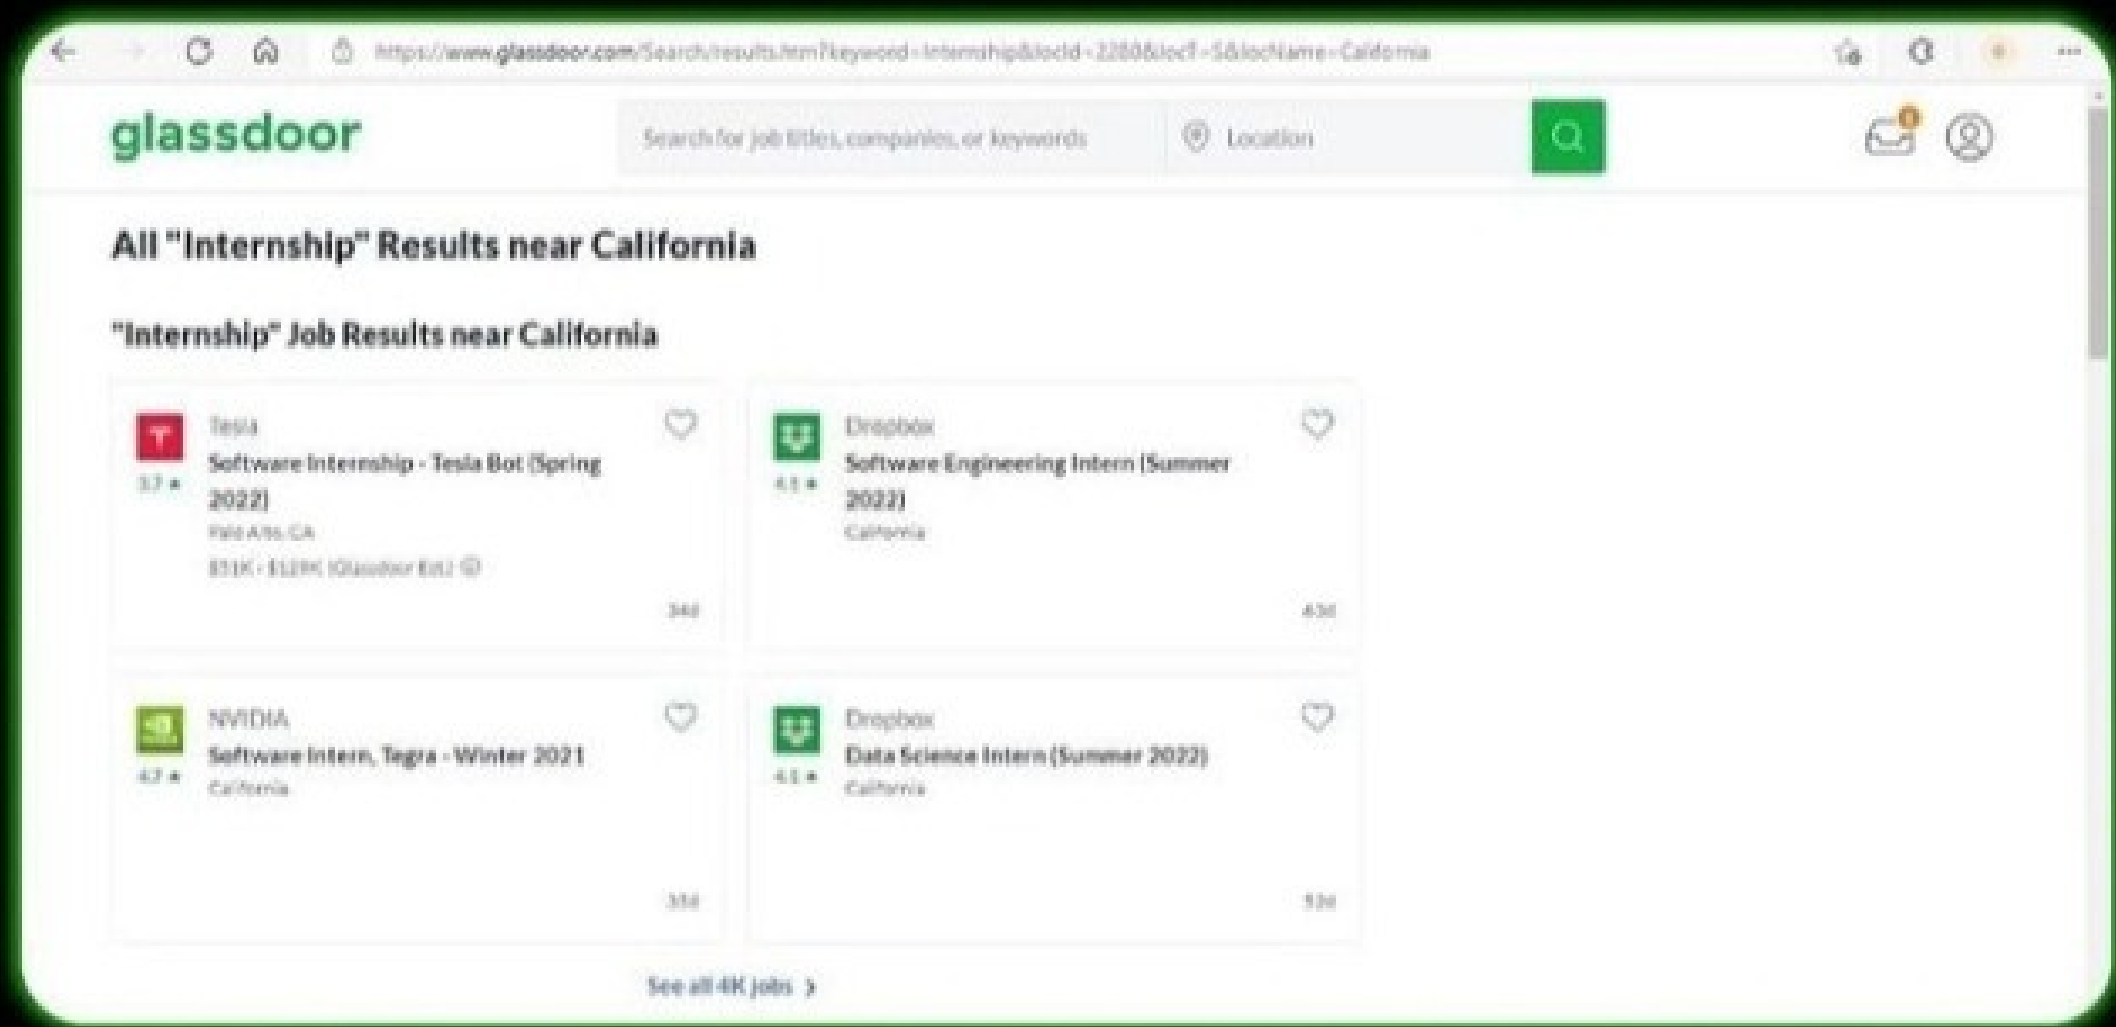

3. Chegg Internships

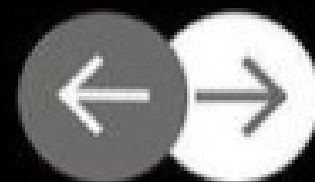

- Chegg Internships is a dedicated employment site for students. This site brings students and employers together in one centralized location. It provides tools and services for students to develop real-world skills by choosing an internship program.

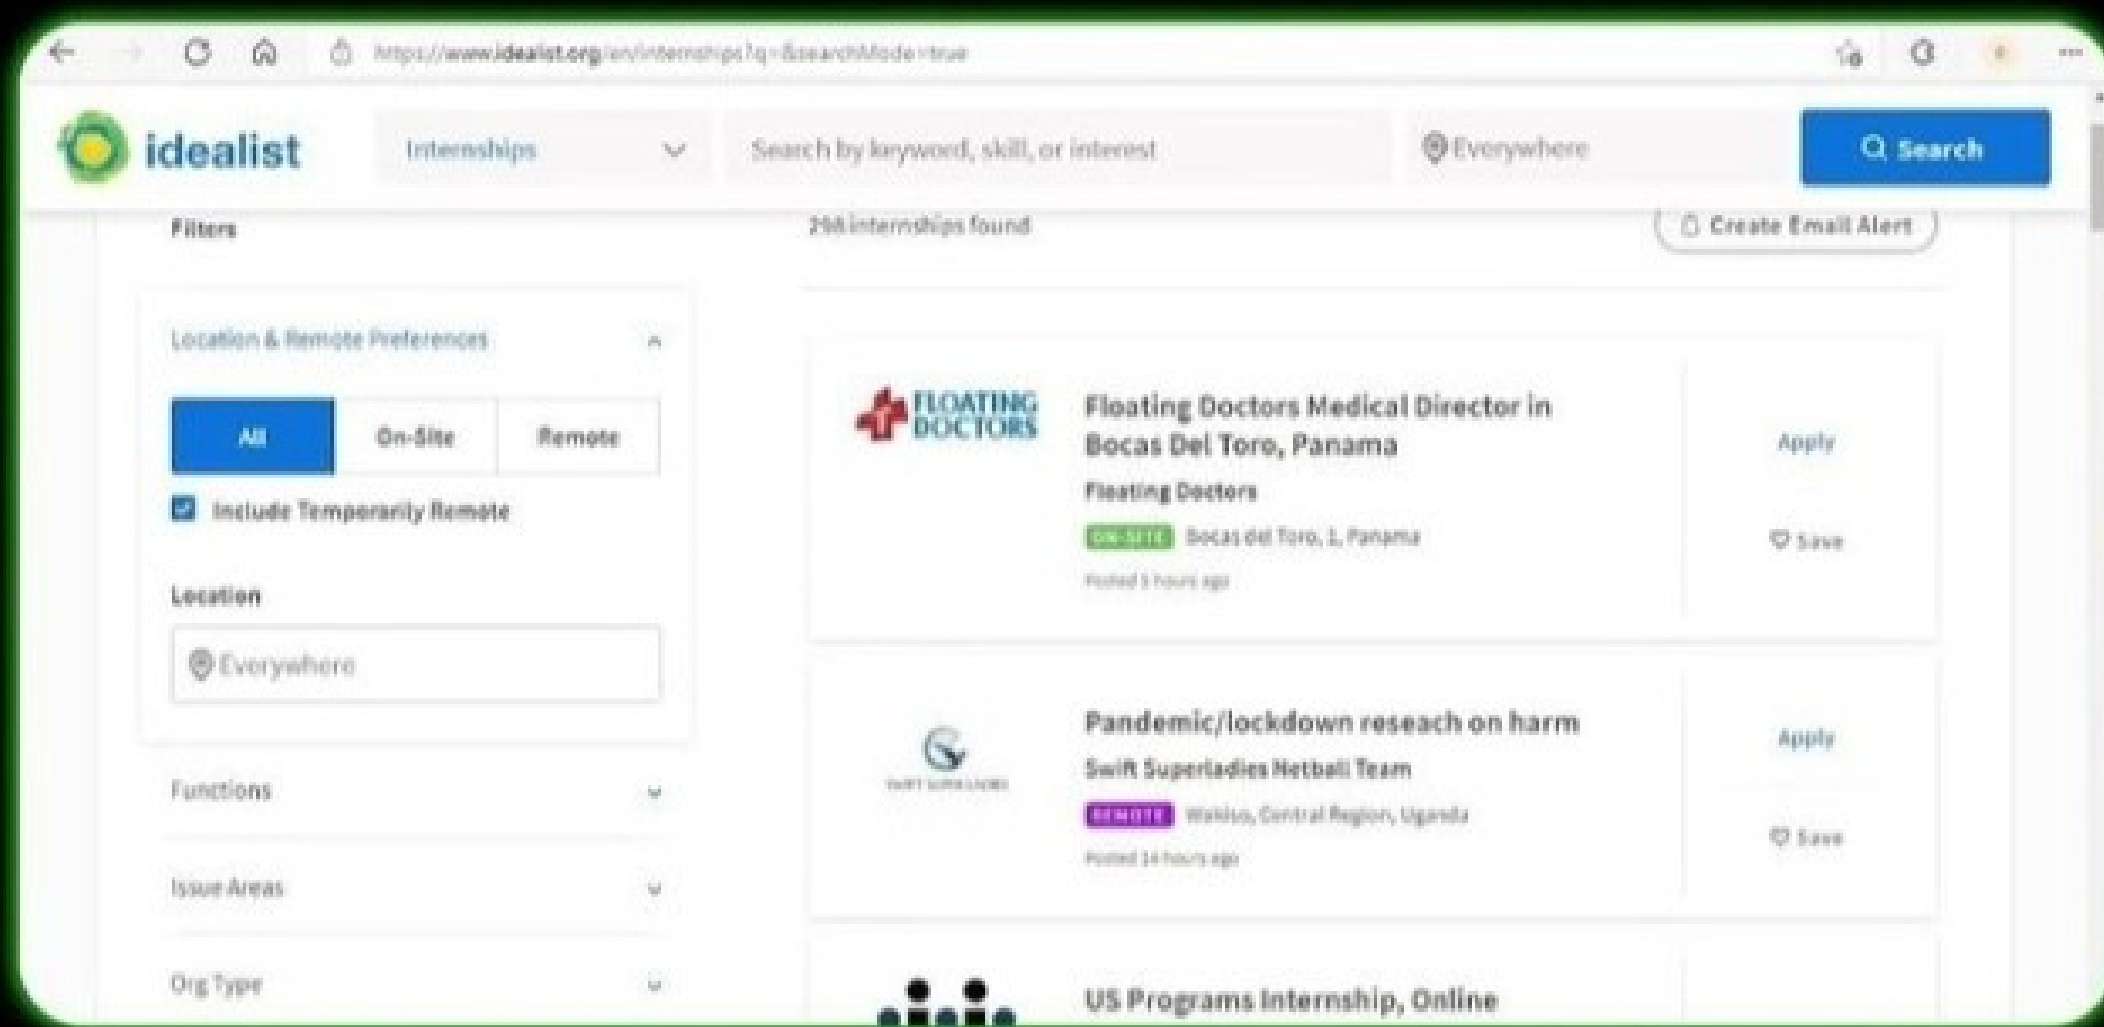

4. Glassdoor

- Glassdoor is a global job search platform that offers comprehensive tools to help you get the job of your choice. It lets you search for both internships and jobs in almost every field. You get to search for job and internship openings, company reviews, and descriptions of job interviews.

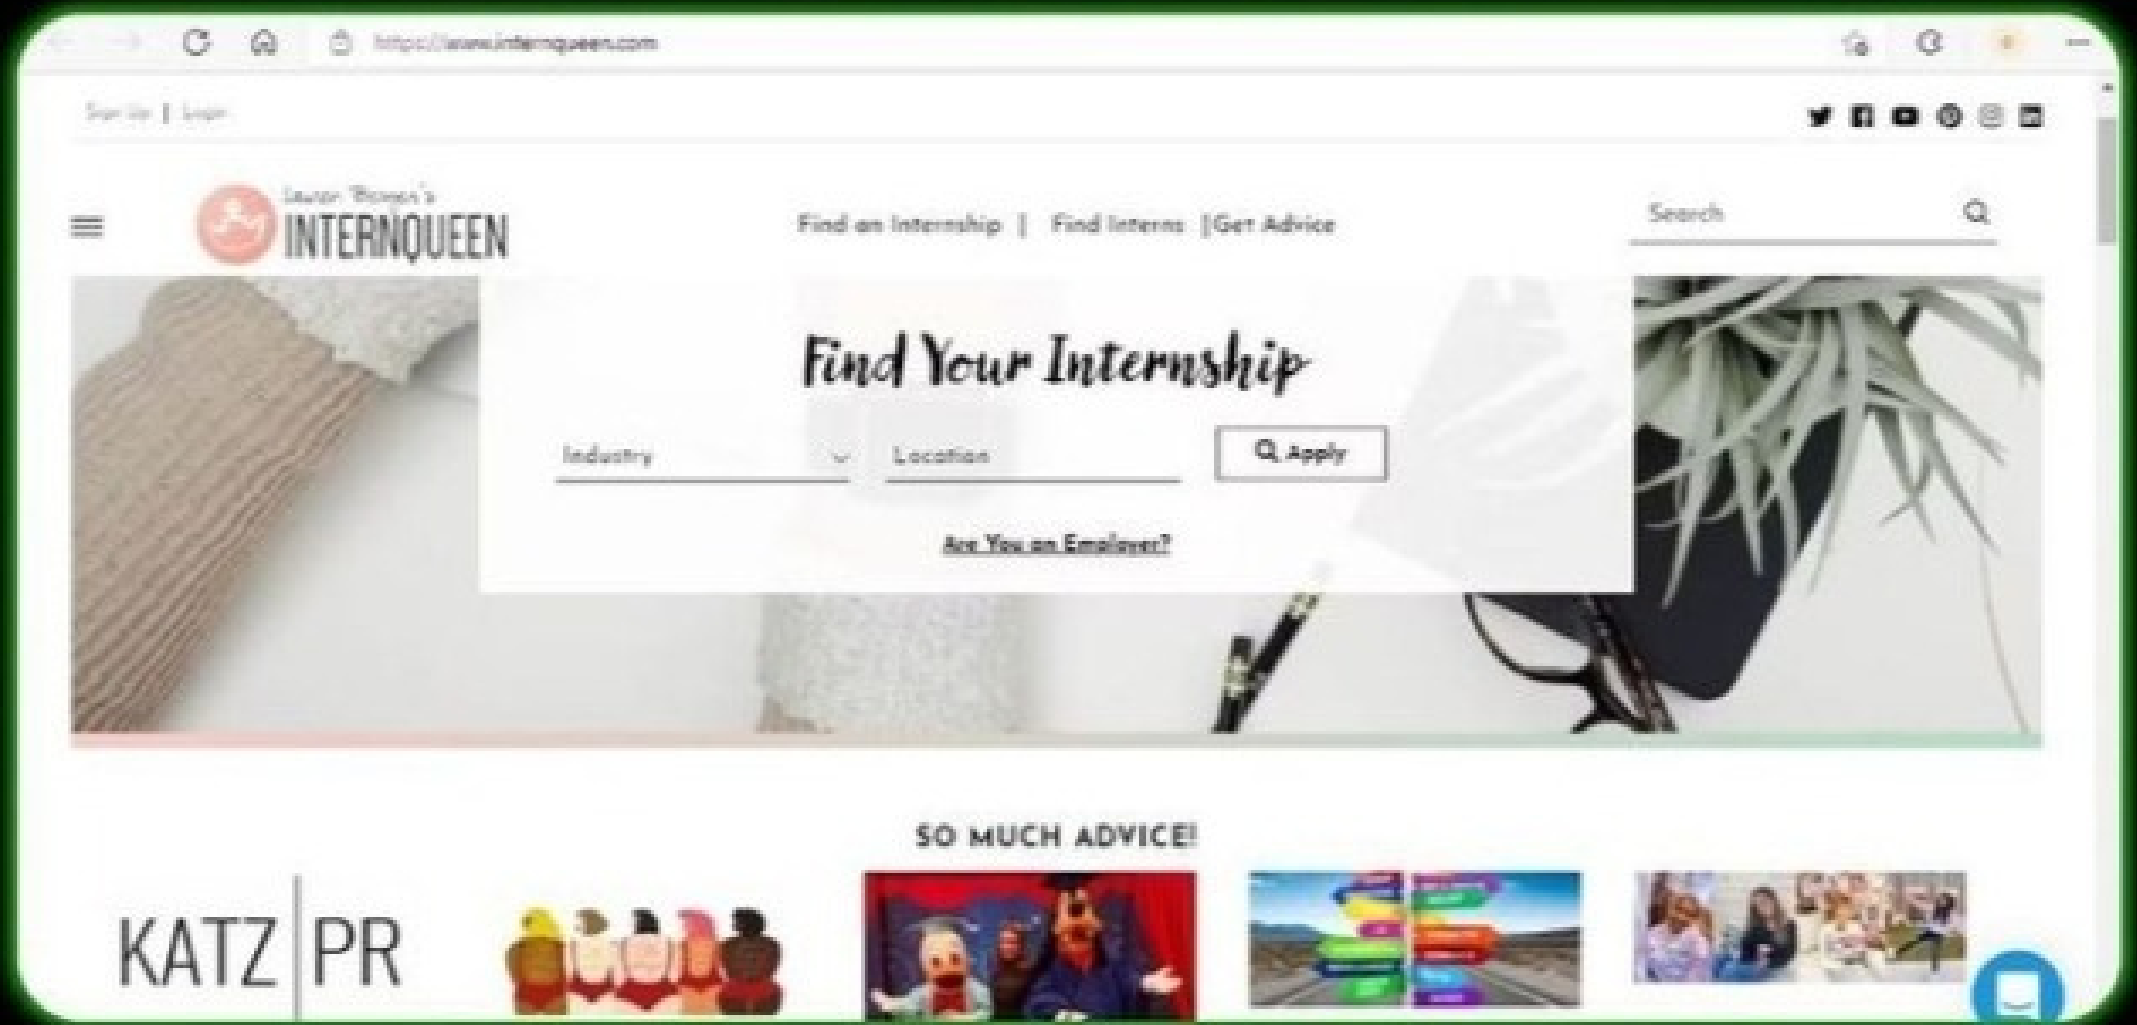

5. Idealist

- Idealist is a non-profit global organization for finding jobs, internships, and volunteer work. If you want to look for an internship in a non-profit organization, Idealist can help you. It has listings for organizations around the world.

6. InternQueen

- InternQueen connects students with employers. It provides information on different internship and fellowship program openings. If you are looking to find an internship, this site is specially made for this purpose.

7. CoolWorks

- CoolWorks is a unique website that provides opportunities to work in the most incredible places around the world. It offers job and internship opportunities in great places like national parks, various resorts, ranches, camps, ski resorts, and jobs on the water.

Loved it ??
Then follow and connect with me
@subratshukla for more
such useful contents

